Rooted In Faith

Attention seniors/retirees, Have you often wondered what the KROC Center is all about? Wednesday, September 13th we will have an opportunity to tour their facility and enjoy their dining area.

Plan to meet at the center (on Broad Street) at 11:00am for the tour & luncheon. You will be amazed at all of the activities available at this Salvation Army Mission. Please consider this as an opportunity to learn more about the Augusta Community's Christian outreach. See you there!

History's importance is that it helps us understand who we are. It is a clue to our identity. Your church's present-day location, architecture, worship style, organization, ministries and outreach, and countless other facets of its life are all rooted in the history of the congregation. By reflecting on the past, we can better understand who we are and can determine the future directions of our ministry. Memory shapes our vision for ministry.

History can also be a source of inspiration. As we learn more about those who created the heritage of which we are heirs, we may be inspired to give thanks for their lives, and we may pledge to follow their example. We also recognize that history is made by people who are not always at their best, and their stories can challenge us to learn from their mistakes.

History can provide much enjoyment and can contribute to the pleasure of learning. It is fascinating to learn about the people of the past. We enjoy listening, seeing, and reading about what has happened in the past. Many in your congregation will be captivated by the stories of people and events in your church's history.

History is ministry! Your job is an important part of the church's ministry as you help it record and remember its service for Christ. You participate in the "ministry of memory".

Please continue to pray for the Powell family. A memorial fund has been set up in remembrance of Lily Kate. We ask you make donations to stating, #lovelikelily, so we can discern donations for her memorial fund. The Church will give the combined donations to "The Cecilia Ensemble."

I don't even know where or how I happened to get the book, but when I was ten years old I read it—devouring the pages, re-reading it over again. In fact, I read it so many times that I could quote passages from it.

What was the book that so captured my interest that hot, Indiana summer? It was the book, "Crazy Legs McBain"—a story about a football team that had suffered a devastating loss when a championship bound football team lost most of its members in a tragic airplane crash. Hal McBain, the main character, was a lanky student who always dreamed of playing football, but was denied the opportunity. The beleaguered coach—desperate for players—recruits Hal for the team. The team members help Hal learn, encouraging him, urging him on as he learns that daydreams become reality only with hard work.

It was my type of story—the ultimate underdogs-overcoming-the-worst-that-can-happen type of story. A story when the good guys win! A story when the most unlikely hero and team goes on to victory against impossible odds. A story when persistence, hard work, and team work carry the day. It's also a story when friendship and integrity are all important.

Who doesn't love a story like that?
The message of that story hold true for the church today.

Persistence. Hard work. Teamwork. Loyalty. Encouragement. Integrity. All these come into play as we try to live as followers of Jesus Christ. It's only as we work together that we can be the very best that we can be—Christ for the world. It's God's love for us and our love for each other that carries us on to victory. May we remember the words written to the early church:

Hebrews 10:24-25 "Let us be concerned for one another, to help one another to show love and to do good. Let us not give up the habit of meeting together, as some are doing. Instead, let us encourage one another all the more, since you see that the Day of the Lord is coming nearer."

May God's love abound in your life and be blessed!

Matthew 19:14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy September! School is in full swing and the students and children are all having a wonderful time. The children are learning so much already. Thanks for allowing us to be a part of your child's preschool years.

Labor Day: We will be closed September 4, 2017 in observance of Labor Day. Have a safe and happy holiday.

Fall Pictures: The children will be taking pictures September 12th and 13th. Lifetouch will photograph our children again this fall. The more pictures you buy the more money we make. So spend until it hurts.

Grandparents Day: We plan to celebrate our grandparents again this year. We will celebrate them September 11, 2017. More info to come.

Bathrooms and classrooms: Parents if you see that the bathroom or classroom needs our attention please let someone in the office know.

Sign-in Computer: Please take the time to read the notes on the computer when you sign your children in and out. This is just another way we try to keep you informed about what is happen at Woodlawn Preschool.

Extra-curricular Activities: Ballet starts Monday, September 11th @ 2:30, Spanish starts Tuesday, August 29th @ 3:15, Chapel starts Tuesday, August 22th @ 9:30, Spanish again every Thursday @ 3:15, Karate starts Thursday, September 7th @10:00.

Lunch and snacks: Parents if your child brings a lunch or snack from home each day this is a reminder that I need a statement from your child's pediatrician stating why your child can not eat what we serve from our kitchen.

ALERT! Please remember that we are a peanut free facility. Also, we request that children do not bring snacks to school unless you provide enough for the entire class. All foods must be finished before your child can be dropped off in his/her classroom. If your child is not finished eating they must remain in the office until the meal is finished.

On the Hunt for a Music Teacher: If you know of anyone who teaches music I am looking for a good one. Please tell them to give me a call at the center.
