June 2022

Service Project: For the month of June, we are collecting non-perishable food items for our Blessing Box here at the church. We are in need of canned meats, canned fruits, powdered milk, and other non-perishable food items. We are also in need of some hand held can openers, as some items do not have pull tops. We are also asking for toiletry items to be placed in the Blessing Box as well.

Thank you so much for your participation!!

Specials Schedule:

- Music - Monday Mornings
- Soccer Shots - Tuesday Mornings -
- Movement - Wednesday Mornings
- Pre-K Computer - Thursday & Friday Mornings

SAFETY ISSUES: Please when entering and exiting the building, DO NOT ALLOW other people to enter or exit the building unless a staff member is present.

Need: We are in need of clean, plastic grocery bags for the Food Pantry and the Center.

Art Class: Woodlawn will be host to Mary Scheirer, who will serve as our Artist in Residence who will be working with our Summer Camp children this summer. We hope to add art classes in the Fall!

Seasonal Clothing: As the season changes, we ask that parents please make sure that all children have a weather-appropriate change of clothing that is properly labeled with the child's name. If your child is experiencing frequent accidents, please make sure that they have the appropriate number of changes of clothing, as we do not have clothing to accommodate all children. Please also make sure that your children have enough diapers and wipes each week!

Pickup/Dropoff Protocol: Please remember that you are required to wear a mask when entering the facility and please remember that parents are not permitted in the classrooms during drop-off and pickup. They must remain outside of the room.

Thank you so much as we continue to navigate through these everchanging situations.

Your support is greatly appreciated.

Class Promotions: Classroom promotions took place on May 31st, and our next promotions will be on August 1st.

Woodlawn United Methodist

Established 1889

"Through Vincent's Eyes"

Those of us of a certain age might deem a popular song of 1972 as a touch stone of our youth and the nativity of our fascination with all things "Vincent." Don McClean's paen to the artist Van Gogh is also known by its opening line, "Starry, Starry Night," referencing the artist's 1889 masterpiece THE STARRY NIGHT. Van Gogh's paintings inspire a devotion that is unmatched and his life story is so mirrored in his art that one is inseparable from the other.

His work is so rife with the ebbs and flows of the artist's spirituality, that as one stands before one of his paintings the observer becomes rapt and transformed. Van Gogh's spirituality was rooted in the Dutch Reform theology of his childhood faith. Judgement and condemnation took a back seat to consolation and solace.

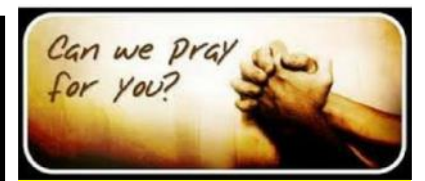

For the artist, Christ is the ultimate comforter whose gaze is directed to the broken in body and spirit. So compelled was Van Gogh to share this message that he felt called to follow in his father's foot steps as a preacher. Finding himself delivering his first sermon in a Methodist pulpit in the English village of Richmond, he spoke with great passion regarding the Christian life even as his sermon may have overwhelmed his hearers as he spoke in broken English. His struggle to live out a Christian vocation was marked by rejection and disappointment.

The solace he found in the hymnody and music of the faith sustained him in the face of these trials. He stated that he desired for his art, "to say something comforting as music is comfortingsomething of the eternal." The Museum of Modern Art in New York houses his masterpiece THE STARRY NIGHT. To see the painting there is unforgettable at every level. It is not only the painting itself that moves one but bearing witness to those who have made the pilgrimage there to see it. Painted in June of 1889 the mystical qualities of the painting reflect the revolutionary hermeneutic that ultimately was so unique in Van Gogh's vision. While the church may have rejected him, the Creator not only embraced him but enabled him to transcend his own suffering and redeem it on canvas.

In conjunction with Van Gogh Augusta, I will be preaching a series of sermons inspired by Van Gogh's art on June 12th, 19th, and 26th. Tickets are available by reservation in the church office for our attendance at Van Gogh Augusta on June 18th, 11:00am

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Sonny Mason
