Psalm Bible Study - Sundays @ 10am | Led By Rev. Thom Davies

It's been said that music is the universal language of humanity. Something about songs just brings people together and challenges us to look deeper. For Christ followers, music is a vital part of our faith journey. It draws us closer to God and challenges us to become more like Him. That's why so many are captivated by the book of Psalms. This timeless songbook touches every aspect of our lives, offering wisdom, comfort, encouragement, and healing. As you study this sampling of the Psalms, let the ancient words meet you where you are. Listen as God speaks to your heart and reminds you just how much He cares about you.

I Will Call Upon The Lord

Sometimes there is nothing left to do but sing. Does that sound off? It is said of the Methodist movement that we were born in song. We sing our faith, and our songs are about calling out to God.

This late summer/early fall, we turn to the song book that has sustained and defined the people of God from the very beginning - The Psalms.

The Psalms give words to a variety of emotions and circumstances out of which we call upon the Lord. We shape our worship around these words to give voice to people in our communities who may feel unheard even by God.

The witness of the Psalms is that God is prepared to meet us where we are. So let us call upon the Lord.

Grace & Peace, Rev. Sonny Mason

I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised.
